"Good morning, young man," the old gentleman said kindly. "Is Helen Miles at home?"

"I'm sorry, sir," said Finley, "but there's no one called Helen Miles in this house. Are you sure you have come to the right address?"

"Oh, well, maybe I came to the wrong house," said the old man. He walked towards the end of the garden.

"Sir, you're going the wrong way!" said Finley.

But the old man wasn't there any more. Finley was puzzled. He went inside the house and found his mum in the living-room. "Mum," he said, "do we know anyone called Helen Miles?" His mum looked at him in amazement. "Did you say Helen Miles? That was my grandmother's name. She died before you were born, and so did my grandfather. Why?"

Finley told his mother about the old man. "Today is the 20th of May, isn't it?" said his mum. "It's my grandmother's birthday, and my grandfather always brought her flowers on her birthday!"

READING

H. Read the report about Mario's restaurant, then mark the sentences T (true) or F (false) .

Introduction
The purpose of this report is to assess Mario's restaurant in Bristol, which I visited on 15th May.

Food and Prices
There is a varied menu at Mario's which includes a wide choice of delicious dishes. I tried the Vegager - a vegetarian burger with spicy chilli sauce on brown bread with chips on the side. It was very tasty. However, I thought Mario's was rather expensive.

Service
The staff at Mario's were friendly and helpful and they were all wearing clean uniforms. The service was fast and the waiters were all very polite.

Atmosphere
My meal at Mario's was a pleasurable experience. The lovely music created an excellent atmosphere. Unfortunately though, there weren't any tables for non-smokers.

Conclusion
Mario's restaurant in Bristol is, on the whole, a great place to have lunch or dinner. However, I think the manager should make a few improvements. Firstly, he should lower the prices so that everyone can have the chance to visit this restaurant. Secondly, he should introduce a no-smoking policy. This will surely improve the atmosphere and make a visit there a unique experience.

46 The prices at Mario's were rather high.

47 The staff weren't very nice.

48 The atmosphere was very good.

49 There is a no-smoking policy at Mario's.

50 The manager should make some changes.

H. Read the article about Angkor Wat. Then answer the questions with two to five words.

Angkor Wat, one of the many temples of the city of Angkor, is in Cambodia, South-East Asia. It is probably the largest religious building in the world. There are many wonderful sculptures on the walls that show dancers and musicians of the 12th century.

Some people say it was constructed by Surgavarman II. Others say that the architect is unknown. When Jayavaram II was King, Angkor was the capital of Cambodia and Angkor Wat was the symbol of the King's power. In 1431, Angkor was destroyed by the Thais. After the destruction, the city was lost for a few centuries. According to Buddhist legends, the city was built by the gods in ancient times. That's why many people travelled from all parts of Asia to see it.

In 1860, Henri Mouhot, a French explorer, made Angkor Wat well-known to the world. The French people were amazed by this sight, so in 1908 they began a restoration project which hasn't been completed yet.

Nowadays visitors are fascinated by its huge size, beautiful sculptures and architecture. That is why it is considered to be one of the ten greatest structures of human civilization.

I'll never forget my visit to Beijing, China. When my friend and his wife invited me, they told me that I would have a really different New Year's Eve and they were right.

Another custom is to cook fish on New Year's Eve and eat it the next day. My friend told me that they

I was really looking forward to New Year's Eve Dinner. The whole family got together and everyone was really happy. I noticed that the grandparents and parents gave children red envelopes with money inside.

After dinner they all started playing cards for good luck. Nobody went to sleep before midnight. You see, at midnight the great event begins: fireworks! I was really amazed. All around the city I could see and hear colourful fireworks. It was incredible and I was really excited.

Why do people think that only cats and dogs make good pets? In my opinion, goldfish make very good pets too!

First of all, goldfish are beautiful to watch. They have lovely colours and it is really enjoyable to watch them swim.

Furthermore, goldfish are quiet and don't need a lot of attention. They don't make any noise. They are not messy and you only have to change their water every 2 or 3 days.

On the other hand, goldfish are not very good company. They don't show any feelings, and you can't play with them.

All in all, although having goldfish may not seem a lot of fun, I believe that they are perfect pets!
